

Uygur Er was born in İzmir, Turkey. He received his doctor of medicine degree in 1990 and completed residency in 1998. He did a microneurosurgery fellowship in University of Illinois under Giueppe Lanzino, a spine deformity fellowship in Heidelberg University under Prof. Juergen Harms and spine tumor fellowship in Johns Hopkins University under Prof. Ziya Gökaslan. He gained an associated professorship in 2008 and he became a professor of neurosurgery in 2014. Currently he is working as a professor of neurosurgery in Neurosurgery dept. Of Düzce University, as well as serving on the editorial board of Turkish Neurosurgery.