

Ahmet Bekar was born in Antalya at 1959. He was graduated from Uludağ University School of Medicine at 1983. He completed a residency in neurosurgery at the Uludağ University at 1993. He became an associate professor in 2002 and professor of neurosurgery in 2009 at the same department. He was still working at Uludağ University Department of Neurosurgery. His main interests were neurooncology, epilepsy and pain surgery. Dr. Bekar has published more than 60 articles and a number of book chapters in the neuroscience literature. He is married with one child